

Additional Resources

<https://www.getsmartaboutdrugs.gov/>

This site is for parents (caregivers and educators) with a wealth of information/resources

<https://www.getsmartaboutdrugs.gov/publications> - Various publications

<https://www.justthinktwice.gov/>

This is a site for teens on the dangers of drug use, videos, true stories, facts and much more.

<https://www.campusdrugprevention.gov/>

To provide institutions of higher education and their surrounding communities with these resources to prevent drug misuse among college students

<https://www.operationprevention.com/>

DEA has joined forces with Discovery Education to create a comprehensive NO COST curriculum to combat opioid misuse. There are virtual fieldtrips and a standard aligned K-12 curriculum resources, a parent tool-kit and much more.

<https://www.dea.gov/onepill>

The One Pill Can Kill Campaign offers an opportunity for the media, parents, teachers, educators, and community organizers to raise awareness about counterfeit prescription drugs

The links above can be found at www.DEA.GOV "What We Do" tab, "Education and Prevention"

To report any anonymous tip: www.DEA.GOV click "Submit a Tip"